

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ### Library Hours.

From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M., during the week. Sunday 1 to 5 P. M.
Legal holidays excepted.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

SECTION 1. The Library shall be open on all secular days, except legal holidays, from 9 o'clock A. M. until 9 o'clock P. M., and on Sundays from 1 to 5 o'clock P. M.

SECTION 2. All residents of Alameda, above the age of fourteen years, who shall have signed the prescribed application card and furnished an acceptable guarantor, shall be entitled to borrow books from the Library for home use. To be a satisfactory guarantor, a person must be over twenty-one years of age, a resident of Alameda and his or her name must appear on the city assessment roll. The following certificate must be signed by the guarantor:

Alameda.....18

To the Trustees of the Alameda Free Library: I....., residing at No..... street, Alameda, certify that this applicant is a proper person to be accorded the privileges of the Alameda Free Library, and do hereby promise to pay any fine that may be charged against..... and to make good any injury or loss which the Library may sustain from the permission to draw books given in consequence of this certificate.

Name.....
Residence.....

Note 1.—The privileges granted in consequence of this certificate may be revoked at the pleasure of the guarantor upon settlement of the Library's claims against the applicant.

Note 2.—This application must be left at the Library for consideration, and if the same be satisfactory, at the end of three days the applicant will receive a card entitling him to borrow books.

SECTION 3. All persons of respectable character and orderly conduct shall have free access to the Library during all regular hours, and be permitted the use of the newspapers and periodicals.

SECTION 4. Encyclopædias, dictionaries and other books needed for reference in the Library; books not easily replaced, in consequence of their rarity or value (such being marked as reference); books especially given for reference only; books deemed by the Trustees to be unsuited for general circulation; also unbound periodicals, shall be used only in the Library.

SECTION 5. Every person allowed the privilege of taking books from the Library will be furnished with a card setting forth his right, and bearing a record of his residence as given in his application. If this residence is changed, immediate notice must be given at the Library, and any neglect to do so may subject the card-holder to forfeiture of his card. The guarantor in all cases is responsible for books drawn by means of his card, by whomsoever presented. If a card is not presented on returning or renewing a book, it may be detained in the Library at least one day when next used in asking for a book. If a card is lost it cannot be replaced until after thirty days' notice of the loss has been given at the Library, which interval is necessary to stop its use in irresponsible hands; but the loss of a card will not remove the owner's responsibility. A new card may be immediately issued on payment of twenty-five cents as a penalty. If a lost card is recovered after a new one is issued, one of the two shall be immediately surrendered. Any person desiring to borrow a book shall find from the Catalogue the shelf and case number of the book desired, and not from the Library Assistant.

SECTION 6. No person shall have in home use more than one volume at a time, and no book shall be retained longer than two weeks, with the privilege of renewal of one week. New books are such as have been in the Library three months. These when returned must remain in the Library for one hour before reissue, and can be kept one week only, and are not renewable.

SECTION 7. When the connection of two volumes of one work makes the use of both necessary, such two volumes may be issued together on one borrower's card, the words "two volumes" to be plainly written on the slip in such cases.

SECTION 8. Any person detaining a volume longer than the regulations permit shall be fined five cents for each day of detention. Such volume may be sent for, and an additional penalty of twenty-five cents shall be collected for such detention. No book shall be let to any person who has fines and penalties unsettled. There is no obligation to send notice of fines, and failure to receive notice is no excuse from paying.

SECTION 9. No person shall lend either his Library card, or any book belonging to the Library, to any one not a member of the same household, under penalty of forfeiture of said Library card. Borrowers must not exchange books with each other for return, but each book must be returned upon the same card on which it was taken out.

SECTION 10. All injuries to books beyond reasonable wear, and all losses, shall be made good, to the satisfaction of the Librarian, by the person liable: every book detained longer than three months being held to be lost; and all persons refusing to make injuries or losses good, or to replace or pay the value of books lost, shall be debarred the privilege of using the Library, and their guarantor shall be held responsible for such injuries or losses.

Note 1.—Remember that when a book is delivered to you it is considered to be in a perfect condition. If there are any marks, imperfections or mutilations, it is your duty to report the same to the Librarian; otherwise it will be charged to your account.

SECTION 11. No person shall be permitted behind the railing inclosing the shelves of the Library excepting members of the Board of Trustees and employees of the Library.

SECTION 12. All conversation and conduct inconsistent with quiet and order are strictly prohibited in the Library, hall and stairs leading thereto.

SECTION 13. Communications intended for the Board of Trustees can be deposited in the box provided for that purpose, placed at the entrance to the Library. They should be signed by the writer's name, as anonymous communications are not regarded of any use.

Directions for drawing books from the Library.

The number of the case and shelf—on the right hand side of the page—must be given in orders for books, which may be by author, or title of the works. Write several orders on slips provided for that purpose, and hand same to Librarian or Assistant.
